who has made of her life and her teaching a fine art, we dedicate the 1950 J.

The Powerful Robot.

Science, which we see given embodiment in Louise Lentz Woodruff's "Science Advancing Mankind," has through many generations propelled humanity forward. But are we, is mankind, to continue to be pushed blindly toward an unknown destination? Are we, hypnotized by a feeling of strength and security, to be led to the brink of destruction and hurled to annihilation?

Using the arts, which have been transmitted to us, we must mold a pattern of civilization that will best serve humanity. We must learn to control the forces of science and to harness them in order that we may achieve man's dream of security, peace, fullness of life . . . We must build bonds of interest through the fine arts of sculpture, music, painting, and literature. We must, through the academic arts by means of education, create bonds of understanding. Our generation must find bonds of common ethical beliefs which recognize the good of all to be the highest law. Thus we can go forward, not unseeingly, but to greater heights by developing the greatest arts of all—

Advancement In Human Relations Must Win Race

The new world frontiers opened by aviation give to this generation of young people a vast new range of opportunities. To train for these opportunities is one of the important objectives of modern secondary schools.

Much that is being taught today will continue to be valuable in this training. However, changed global responsibilities of all people require changed educational programs. If we are to deal successfully with the people around the world, we must understand their social customs, their governments, and their economies.

Human relations advancement must keep pace with technological advancement. If technology wins this race, we perish. If supremacy of human relations directs technological advancement, we may know the golden age.

—Hugh S. Bonar

Don Harms

Scholarship. Leadership. Service.

"With the flaming torch of truth and knowledge, the candles symbolizing character, scholarship, leadership and service are lit" at the impressive initiations of the Keystone and Torch chapter of the National Honor Society. Candidates for membership, who are chosen for possessing attributes of scholastic achievement, initiative, and personality qualities, are voted upon by the N. H. S. faculty committee, composed of Principal Clarence Stallman, Miss Helen Mahany and Ellery Frost, deans, and four class representatives.

Fifteen per cent of every graduating class has membership in the society. They are chosen in April of the junior term and in November and March of the senior. The ceremonies for presenting the honor of membership to initiates are under the auspices of Morris Lewenstein, sponsor.

The two initiation ceremonies this past year took place on December 14 on which date 30 seniors became members and on April 25 at which 55 juniors and seniors received their certificates of membership. The impressive ceremonies highlighted by the taking of the pledge by the initiates who held candles lit from the torch of Truth and Knowledge.

Preceding this ceremony, officers gave talks on the principles of the society—character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Superintendent Hugh S. Bonar spoke at both ceremonies this year. Also included on the program in December were a duet by Jane Anderson and Jim Jaskowiak and a trio composed of Kay Gottlieb, Mary Ann Belin, and Marylyn McMillan. A solo by Annette Johnson and a trio consisting of Phyllis Reynolds, Virginia Rang, and Doral Hawkinson participated in the program in the spring.

The Book Exchange, which has become a traditional service for the group, was again sponsored by the National Honor society at the beginning of each semester. Unneeded second-hand books were sold by the student body and repaired ones purchased at a comparatively low cost by students.

On Step-up day, which was held on May 5, members served as guides for rural students who will enter JT in the fall. On freshman day at the beginning of the term, the NHS will also help in guiding students through the unaccustomed halls to classes.

When a historical exhibit of famous newspapers and documents was displayed in the corridors in the fall, NHS members acted as ushers for touring classes. Another service benefit, in combination with scholarship, was afforded students when society members acted as tutors for long time absentees. Donations were given to such causes as the Red Cross and year book.

A varied program for the group during the year was exemplified by an informative talk by Mrs. Catherine Braun on "The Age of Adolescence" and a stirring movie, "The Man Without a Country." A talk on scholarships by Ellery Frost, dean of boys, and a speech by Eric J. Fisher, which had been recorded, an exchange teacher from England, lent interest to the monthly meetings.

An assembly program with Captain Harry Schenk and his thrilling film, "On to Singapore," was sponsored by NHS in March. The movie showed actual scenes of hunting wild animals in dense jungles with Captain Harry narrating his experiences.

In spring the traditional picnic was held with the entire membership which had grown to 110, including juniors, in attendance.

Correct functioning of this honor organization would not be possible without the capable assistance of officers who for the first semester were: Don Harms, Roe Walker, Carolyn Bloomquist, and Mary Dolan. Second semester elections put in: Dick Anderson, Carolyn Tomazic, Joe Hies, and Ursula Thiel.

Members elected in April, 1949, were: Richard Anderson, Carolyn Block, Carolyn Bloomquist, Joyce Carpenter, Constance Cryder, Mary Dolan, Joan Ghilian, Donald Harms, June Harvey, Dorothy Kaveney, Shirley Klimek, Mary Lou Metesh, Robert Morris, Kathryn Pierce, Carolyn Tomazic, Beverly Wagner, Jane Walker, Roe Walker, Shirley Wells.

Members elected in October, 1949, were: Marlene Barnes, James Blood, Suzanne Boldt, Juanita Brueser, Nancy Carnright, Ann Collins, Shirley Culver, Lois Jean Erickson, Leora Farland, Anita Geuther, Joseph Heis, Peggy Hermes, Doris Hitchings, Ardythe Kehlet, Carmen Klafter, Elvera Lozar, Joan Luplow, Judith Marshall, Barbara Martinec, Diane McHugh, Charles W. Seniors elected in February, 1950: Steve Archey, Bernadine Branchaw, Robert Deaton, Mary Jane Eaton, Edward Grinton, Anna Rose Helton, Kay Hoff-

Monitors, Librarians Increase Service

"Where were you yesterday? I missed you in study hall."

"I was at the library. Those librarians are busy!"

"I know. I was at the library the other day. What all do they have to do?"

"Oh, let me see—they have to pick up slips, shelve books, give out passes, and check out the books."

"Boy, that's quite a bit. Do they have to be upper classmen? I can only remember seeing juniors or seniors the period I was there."

"No, the year in school makes no difference—just so Miss Olive De Bruler, the head librarian, feels that they have the necessary qualifications—good grades and pleasing personalities."

"Now that describes me to a 'T'. Maybe I'll volunteer next semester."

"That's a great idea. Besides meeting new kids you'll get a wonderful feeling of satisfaction from serving your school. It's fun."

The JT library this year had 29 students who gave up study halls in order to help Miss Olive DeBruler, head librarian, with the work of keeping the library running smoothly. Carding books, giving out magazines and keeping track of who was in the library are all part of their everyday jobs.

This year a special freshman library was organized under Miss Hazel Anderson, assisted by Mrs. Irene Hansen. Only freshmen were allowed in there and at least one student a period was employed in the same job as the regular high school student librarians. With this new system our library system really got its face lifted this year.

"May I see your pass, please?"

"Sure, here it is. Say, I'm out interviewing for the yearbook. Mind if I ask you a few questions?"

"Course not, what do you want to know?"

"Well, what are your duties?"

"Keeping order in the halls, guiding visitors, stopping all people (as I did you) and asking for passes, and finally, telling Ellery Frost, head of monitors, about all students who break the rules are our most important jobs."

"Who is able to be a monitor?"

"Juniors and Seniors are preferred, but any student with a 'C' average or above, with a recommendation from his home room teacher may apply for the job. A free period is a must. That's about all . . ."

"All! That's plenty. Thanks a lot for your information. You'll see your words in print. So long!"

This year the monitor system under the guidance of Ellery Frost, co-operated better than ever. During the sixteen periods of the day, 117 boys and girls, who had given up study halls, were busily engaged at their jobs of keeping order in the halls, directing visitors, and stopping all suspicious looking people. More vigilance was the unspoken motto, and to achieve this goal, the monitors increased their efforts.

Special lights were installed above each monitor post which left the student stationed there in a pool of light. This also aided the other students so that they could be warned of a monitor sitting there. Altogether, there was a new look in the monitor system.

Privilege Cards Given To Council

Annual assembly . . . "Royal Rhythm" on October 11 . . . Cleanup Campaign . . . Better conduct at assemblies . . . Pep assembly . . . Stadium project . . . All this and much more represents what the Student Council, sponsored by Miss Alice Tennyson, has done the past year.

"Yes, Your Majesty" and "Yes, Your Highness" were frequently voiced phrases directed to Ricky Bates and Lois Segerberg who were crowned king and queen for the evening at the Annual Student Council Dance. Royal Rhythm, the first all-school dance of the year, was presented on October 11 in the combined gyms under the auspices of the homeroom representatives.

This year the Inner Council, which consists of the elected officers and chairmen of standing committees, tied the group closer by having separate committee meetings outside the regularly scheduled council meetings. President Tom Burke presided at all the discussion; he was assisted by Jack Baker, vice-president; Margaret Whitmore, secretary; and Kay Gottlieb, treasurer. Committee heads who promoted school spirit and relations were Ray Bolden, welfare; Audrey Niethammer, welcoming; James Needham, citizenship; Connie Cryder, student relations; Ann Collins, publicity; Joe Heis, assembly; Clifford Colquitt, building and grounds; John Donahue, pep committee.

"Case dismissed," echoed in the Annual Assembly presented by the Council on February 21. Judge Ray Bolden tried "Cases of yesterday in the court of today" which were about famous history events. Among those on the stand were Christopher Columbus, Paul Revere, Aaron Burr, and Stephen Foster. They were charged with such crimes as displacing the Indian population, disturbing the peace, committing murder and receiving a broken heart and then were given a chance to present their cases before final judgment was passed.

Talks by each representative were given early in the year in all the homerooms, urging improved conduct at the assemblies. These talks had apparent effect because improved assembly manners led to more assemblies being presented during the rest of the year.

Success is the word to describe the stadium projects. Through the year, the council worked in various channels to advance the production of the stadium. A special committee was elected in November to attend the future meetings of the Joliet Park Board and learn the facts of the situation. Larry Flink reported at the council meetings on the progress of the project. In April, the first ground breaking ceremony was held for the beginning of construction. According to the report presented, the stadium will be ready for late fall use by the school teams.

During the year, James Needham and his Citizenship Committee chose an outstanding boy each month who would attend the weekly meetings for that month of the local Rotary Club. The Assembly Committee, with Joe Heis, chairman, planned an exchange assembly for next year with either Lockport Township High School or Bloom Township High School. Before one of the Big Eight Conference basketball games, John Donahue and his Pep Committee presented a rousing Pep Assembly in the gym for the entire student body. During the year volunteers from the council acted as guides and group directors for strangers or guests who came to visit the school. They also acted as librarians in the newly established freshman library.

Joliet Township High School was well represented at the conference for student council discussions, and then reports were given at meetings. Audrey Niethammer attended the State Conference at Peoria, Illinois, on April 21. At the conference at Bloom Township High School on April 18, Carol Block, Connie Cryder, James Needham and Audrey Niethammer represented Joliet. Other conferences were held at Harvey and Argo.

The question of privilege cards was the main subject for the latter part of the year for Student Council. These are cards that entitle the bearer to act as a roving monitor during free periods, study in a special study hall or go to the cafeteria. Possessors are not assigned to study halls or homeroom period during assemblies. During this time they are to assume responsibilities of monitorship and guides. When they were not busy with these duties, their time may be used in any desirable way. However, any detrimental act on the part of the student would cause removal of the card. The cards were presented to the entire council on May 1. Next year further extension of the cards and the privileges accompanying them will be experimented with.

Much complaint due to the fact of too many donation drives at one time brought about a new council policy. Connie Cryder and the Student Relations Committee drew up a plan to limit drives and to schedule those to be presented in order to avoid any conflict. Any new drives desired by anyone must first be presented to the Student Relations committee for discussion and approval.

Rooters, Ushers Mix Spirit, Assistance

James Rickhoff and his Ushers Club, who have served as ushers for all school organizations since 1944, continued their assistance this year by taking tickets, distributing programs, ushering, and patrolling at such activities as concerts, plays, operettas, and sports affairs. Approximately 50 students gave their time and service as members of this group.

Activities as a club group have been on an expansion plan this year. Up until now the members met only infrequently as a definite group and were just assigned to various affairs as ushers. For the first time usher identification pins were worn and regular meeting sessions were held.

Officers for the year, under the capable leadership of Robert Lasser, president, began a new award system. Until now, students who had given service had received no recognition, but now a small pin will be awarded to those who have been participants in the club.

"J-J-J-o!! i-i-i-e-t! J-o-l-i-e-t!" That's the Pep club boosting sportsmanship and morale.

J is for John Schneider, sponsor of the Pep club, for he's a Jolly good fellow. O stands for the officers who have quite a job in managing the peppy group. The first semesters officers were: Lola Stanersen, president; Donna Manther, vice-president; Diane Swinfin, secretary; and Nancy Hodges, treasurer. Margaret Passas, Betty Branchaw, Nancy Richardson and Lois Moon were elected for the second semester. Our cheer Leaders are represented by the L. Truly leaders, they are backed by the club at every game. I is for each Individual. The Pep club is for everyone in the school with no exceptions. Efficiency fills in E. That's just the word for the club which provides for busses to the out-of town games at a nominal rate, made possible by the profit from taffy and donut sales.

"To Thee we'll e're be True". Rah! Rah! Rah! Pep club!

Hobbies Range from Abacus to Zambesi

"Duodecimal system, non-euclidian geometry, electrical-mathematical machines, abacus, world calandar, units of measure derived from parts of the body" no, this isn't something out of Einstein's next book. It's just some of the topics the Math club discussed this year. Other projects were a Christmas tree cross word puzzle, magic squares, math short cuts and tricks, a debate on the English and metric system and a book review of Education of T. C. Mits.

To stimulate an interest among students of advanced mathematics and to further the knowledge of facts which time does not permit to be taught in the regular classes is the two-fold purpose of the organization. Miss Mary Lou Fisher is the sponsor.

Officers of the club for the first semester were: president, Robert Deaton; vice-president, Joyce Neilson; secretary-treasurer, George Tillman, for the second semester, Jean Krause, Ray Kramer, Norma Dick.

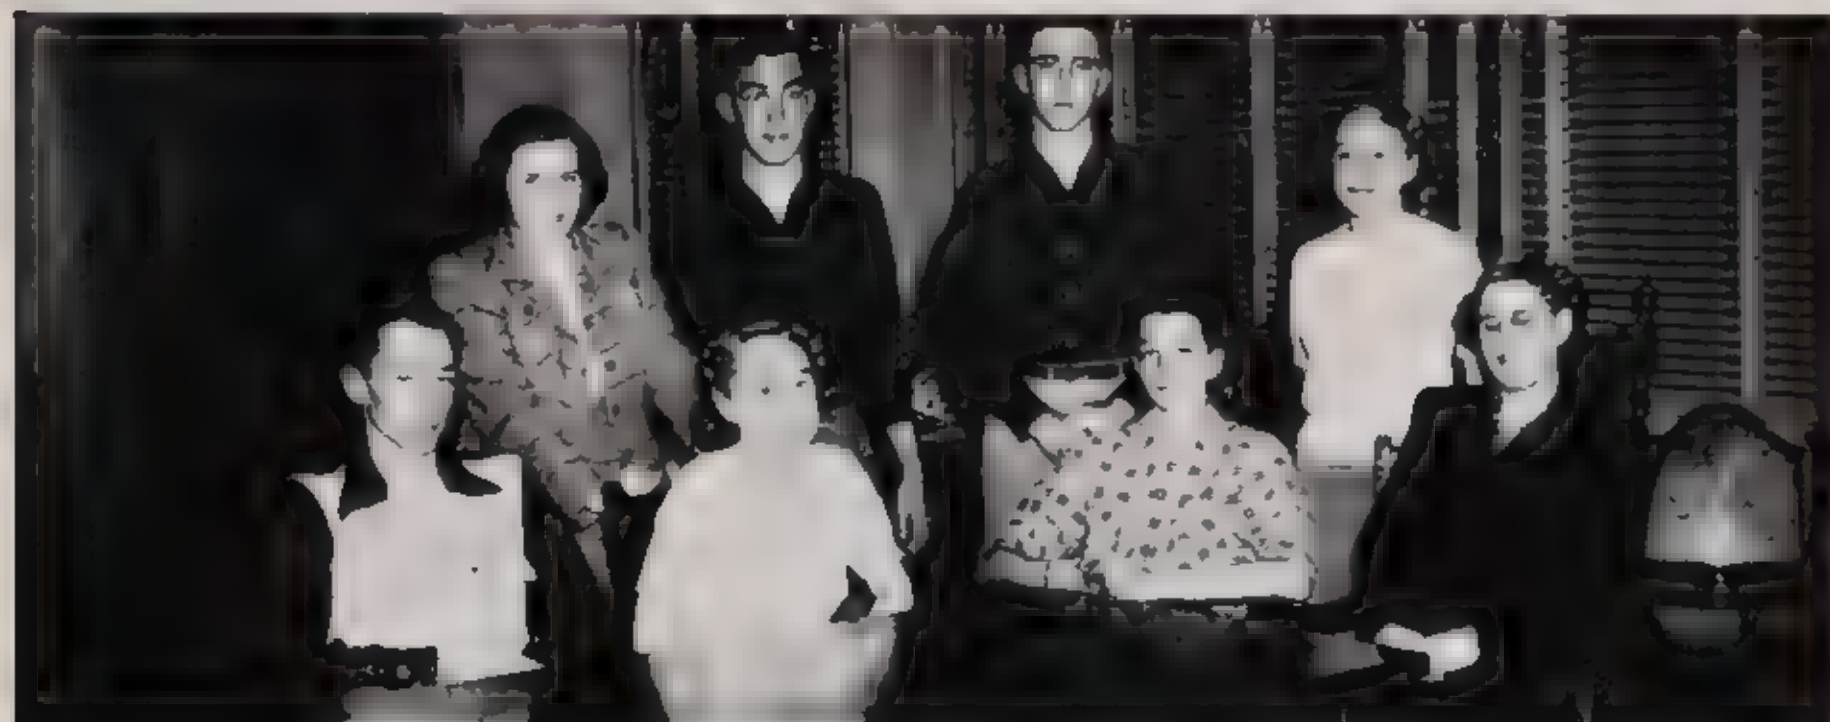

Philatelically speaking, the JT Stamp club, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Petersen, has accomplished many satisfying things this year.

The primary project of the organization was getting stamps and materials for the disabled veterans at Hines Memorial hospital. Everything that is needed to carry out the hobby of stamp collecting is packed and sorted by the club members. Every Wednesday night of each week, Mr. and Mrs. Petersen distribute these materials to interested boys at the hospital free of charge.

At their social get-togethers, which usually take place at the C. Beecher Petersen home, discussions centering around topical stamp collecting or "first day covers" often take place. The officers who arranged these programs and projects for the year were: Marion Branchaw, president; Joyce Neilson, secretary-treasurer; and Rosemarie Atroldi, program chairman.

Clubs Prepare For Worthwhile Careers

"We face the future with warm courage and high hope!"

This is the creed of the Future Homemakers of America. Under the sponsorship of Miss Jane Pendergast, they are preparing themselves for happy and successful futures.

A Future Homemakers District convention was held here in May. During the sessions and discussions many ideas were exchanged.

Christmas time found the club members entertaining at the Salem Home for the Aged. During Education Week they helped sponsor an exhibit of projects done in the Homemaking classes. A "Gingham and Denim Swing" was presented in the fall.

At a Mother-Daughter Tea, the officers were formally installed in an impressive ceremony. They were Helen Warren, president; Marietta Passas, vice-president; Janet Morris, secretary; and Marilyn Misschia, treasurer.

Named after Miss Elizabeth Barns who taught at JT for over 40 years, the Elizabeth Barns' Future Teachers of America Club, initiated in 1949, is one of the newest organizations of the school.

To acquaint the student with his chosen career and to give him a chance to practice teaching, are the primary purposes.

Sponsored by Ivan Baldwin, the organization usually has an informative talk or movie at their regular meetings. Visiting colleges, enjoying parties, and sending a delegation to the state convention in Peoria were some of their activities.

The officers for the year were: president, Jane Walker; vice-president, Jim Love; secretary, Rebecca Rennick; treasurer, Ardythe Kehlet; parliamentarian, Judy Marshall; historian, Willa Redden; and Adrienne Halleland, librarian.

FFA. FCA Stir Interest in Careers

'Wal', I'll be hornswoggled! I reckon a fellar don't realize how busy he's been 'till he stops, turns around, and looks back over what's passed"

The Green Hand initiation, a Christmas party for the Future Homemakers, FFA shows, a fish fry, pot luck suppers, joint meetings with Peotone and Mino-oka, a Parent and Son Banquet, the State FFA convention, and the sectional officers banquet were some of the major activities the FFA has participated in Clarence Stallman and Myron McKiernan were chosen honorary members. Audrey Neithammer was elected Chapter Sweetheart.

The following officers were formally installed for the first semester: John Smith, president; Gilbert Woodman, vice-president; Walt Myers, secretary; Roe Walker, treasurer; Tom Moore, reporter and Jack French, sentinel. The second semester officers were: John Smith, Tom Moore, Jack French, Roe Walker, Martin Medema, and Don Carlton.

"Yep, we shore enjoyed ourselves."

Students cramming into the auditorium, laughter, applause, music. What's the cause of the excitement? It's the F.C.A.'s "Cavalcade of Stars", one of the highlights of the year

The "Cavalcade", sponsored by Frank Renner and John Schneider, is the outstanding activity of the Future Craftsmen of America. Student officers for 1949-50 were: Steve Kovak, president; Ronald Jeffrey, vice-president; Ray Kambic, secretary, and Joe Starasnic, treasurer

Main purposes of the organization are: to motivate and improve scholarship and to promote fellowship among students interested in industrial education.

After the "Cavalcade" is over the real work begins. Funds from the "Cavalcade" are used to reach these goals: The money received from admissions is used for Christmas baskets, to buy glasses for the needy students in school, for industrial field trips, for school projects and to promote and complete shop projects.

Thus the "Cavalcade of Stars" not only entertains but helps the F C A. to serve the school and to achieve its own goals

Busy Newcomers Are F D A and Los Listos

"He profits most who serves best" is the wise motto of the Future Distributors of America. Practicing what they preach is their outstanding characteristic. In the morning the students of the distributive education classes learn and in the afternoon they apply this knowledge at various jobs that have been obtained for them by Duane Kirchoff, their sponsor and teacher.

A delegation from Joliet attended the Future Distributors of America Convention held March 3 and 4 in Springfield. Walter Sharp was appointed official photographer and also elected state director at the meeting. Class projects were displayed at the convention.

"El nombre de este circulo es Los Doce Listos. Por que? Porque somos muy inteligentes. No es verdad. Por supuesto!" . . . oops, we forgot—these languages are so confusing . . .

Los Doce Listos (The Twelve Clever Ones) was organized the first semester of the year by Mrs. Aleida Petersen's Spanish IV class in order to help a Mexican school more efficiently.

With Mrs. Petersen as sponsor; Jack Baker, president; Marilyn Verner, treasurer; and Norma Blatt, social chairman; Los Listos soon became an active organization. Helped by other Spanish classes, $21.00 was sent to a school in Tuxpan, Michoacan, Mexico, for two blackboards and other necessities.

Scientific Projects Engross Members

Probably the newest organization at J.T. is the Conservation Club. It has had a flying start and promises to continue in the race of clubs here at school.

The president for its first year of organization is William Verd; its sponsor, William J. Hughes.

On its program have been guest speakers including Mayor Arthur Janke and Mrs. A. A. Wills, both of whom spoke on the Hickory Creek flood control problem.

This spring the members of the club went on field trips to study soil conditions, methods to stop erosion, water sheds, wild life, conservation, and forestry conservation.

Developing their interests in mineralogy, physics, geology, and biology are the chief pastimes of the Junior Mineralogists. This group is merging with a state-wide organization called Junior Academy Members.

The group made their usual fine showing at the Annual Junior Academy of Science meet held May 5 and 6 at Rock Island. Projects representing the year's work received high ratings.

In addition to informative programs the club sponsored several trips to Chicago museums. These were arranged by the sponsor, Noble Benjamin; and the officers: James Benjamin, president; Leila Fisher, vice-president; Dave Kropp, secretary; Radleigh Becker, secretary; and Linda Isacson, publicity chairman.

Tri-Hi-Y's Create High Standards

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character" . . .

Yes, this is the way every Tri-Hi-Y opens its meetings ever to keep before the girls the high standards and ideals of the organization.

Religion is one of the main features of the Tri-Hi-Y movement. Through inspiring services conducted by worship chairman all Tri-Hi-Y girls have known many moments that will be remembered in years to come.

Tri-Hi-Y sponsors many social and service activities. On Thanksgiving and Christmas, baskets were filled and given to needy families which each club "adopted". Girls also made Hallowe'en nutcups for the orphanages and hospital tray favors, and took part in ushering at "Y" plays and serving at "Y" banquets.

Main social event of the year was the spring dance given by the Council. Other affairs held during the year were barn-dances, splash parties, and theater parties.

Each Tri-Hi-Y has a program chairman who works hand in hand with Zenol Moore, the YMCA girls' secretary. They have a varied program each week dealing with such subjects as boy-girl relationships, racial and religious problems, good grooming, and national and international affairs.

Three clubs participated in the First Model Youth legislature held at Springfield April 24 and 25. Nancy Zelko, of the senior Tri-Hi-Y, was elected Chaplain of the House at the pre-legislative conference held at Lake Forest, Illinois. Representing Joliet in Springfield were: Ann Collins, Nancy Zelko, Judy Marshall, Janet Duckmanton, Inger Sandberg, Ethelda Roberts, Evonne Seron, Rheta Storey, and Carolyn Peterson. At a ball in honor of Youth Governor Bill Turner, Ann Collins was crowned queen. Ted Trager of Evanston was crowned king.

Each year, at Palos Park, an officers training conference is held for the newly elected officers. The purpose of the meet is to show the officers how to conduct meetings and how to lead the club.

All clubs elect two delegates to attend the Tri-Hi-Y Council. The Council sponsored an Easter morning breakfast as well as the annual dance. Officers of the Council this semester are: Nancy Zelko, president; Virginia Bressler, vice president; Marlene Holl, treasurer; and Donna Porfilio, secretary.

For the first time this year a state-wide Tri-Hi-Y retreat was held at Palos Park in May. All members of all clubs attended. The purpose of the retreat was to make each individual member look back at the past and to plan the future of their Tri-Hi-Y.

The Tri-Hi-Y's have a membership of two hundred. Spring semester officers of the six clubs were: Fraternettes—Kay Smego, president; Diane Klafter, vice-president; Marjo Seron, treasurer; and Janet Speicher, secretary.

It's Dreamtime In The 'Land of Nod'

Highlighting the social events of the year was the informal dance, "Land of Nod," given by the Tri-Hi-Y Council. A fairy tale theme was carried out in decorations. Reigning as king and queen of the dance were Pamela Sims and Jim Jaskoviak. Nancy Zelko was general chairman of the affair. Other chairmen were: Judy Marshall—decorations; Ann Stanersen—publicity; Marlene Hill—house; Evonne Seron—tickets; Ann Collins—program; and Marilyn Miscischia—refreshments.

This was the first year that the graduating Tri-Hi-Y club was honored with a picnic, given by other Tri-Hi-Y clubs.

Turner Elected First Illinois Y Governor

"To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character," the purpose of the Hi-Y is closely paralleled by the club's slogan which is — clean speech, sportsmanship, scholarship and living. "Seeking the Truth" was the centralized theme for the year with monthly fields of inquiry in finding the truth about Hi-Y, world citizenship, Christian ideals, inter-cultural understanding, family happiness, sex, healthful living and the true status of youth.

The big event of the year for all Y clubs was the Y.M.C.A. model legislature at Springfield, Illinois. The first of its kind, the legislature was composed of 300 representatives from Hi-Y and Tri Hi-Y groups from more than 100 communities.

Bill Turner, Joliet Hi-Y council president, presided as the "first" governor of Illinois April 24 and 25 at this conference. In addition to Bill, Joliet was represented by Nancy Zelko, chaplain of the house of representatives, Donald Imig, Hi-Y council adviser from JT, Miss Zenol Moore, YMCA women and girls' work secretary, and Vern Harper, boys' work secretary. Representing Joliet in the Senate were: Judy Marshall, Evonne Seron, Richard Obermeyer, and Richard Sadler. Participating in the house of representatives were: Ann Collins, Ethelda Roberts, Janet Duckmanton, Retha Storey, Arnold Zager, Marvin Rau, Larry Flink, and Sandy Norian. Alternates included: Bill Gaskin, Carolyn Peterson, Inger Sandberg, and Jack Baker.

As part of their program, donations by the Hi-Y to the World Service Fund which finances the organization of YMCA's in foreign countries were raised this year by club projects of selling pencils and clothespins and by collecting papers.

The groups individually sponsored dances, parties, and hayrack rides. Also, there were a date banquet, a father-son banquet, and a mother-son banquet. During the holidays caroling at sanitariums and packing Christmas baskets for the needy brought into

An enjoyable comedy, "Captain Applejack," by George Haskell, was successfully presented by the Senior Class April 17 and 18.

A comedy mystery in three acts, the play had a very interesting plot. Ambrose Applejohn, in the beginning, is a discontented bachelor who is bored by doing the same monotonous things in the same monotonous way. He suddenly has a yearning for adventure, romance, excitement. His fussy, aristocratic Aunt Agatha and his ward Poppy are very shocked at his change of attitude.

Adventure arrives in the form of international jewel thieves and dark mysterious women. This group consists of Anna Valiska, who is supposedly a Russian; Borolsky, who is actually her husband; Mr. and Mrs. Pengard; and Dennet.

In the second act Ambrose dreams of pirates, ships, mutiny, and treasures. In it he is the hero with his other acquaintances, taking the parts of cabin boys and mates.

In the third act the crooks are found out, true loves are united, and everything ends happily.

Under the direction of Burdette Johnston, several weeks were spent casting the play. Careful tests of voice and tone quality were made. After much suspense, the hopeful thespians were gradually eliminated, leaving only those who had passed the high standards, set by Mr. Johnston.

Disaster in the form of the coal strike struck the plans for "Captain Applejack". Because of the critical situation in Joliet, all activities at night had to be postponed so that the date, originally set for March 17 and 18, was moved up to April 17 and 18.

Despite all difficulties, "Captain Applejack" was professionally handled both by the cast and the "back-stage" group — the committees. Not only did the audience enjoy it, but the actors, too, enjoyed every minute of it.

"Got any good predictions . . . this noon's the deadline . . . oh, where's that copy . . . give this a number eight headline . . . oh, boy, just got a big scoop . . ."—just fragments of conversation heard while passing room 375. The J High Journal staff is getting out the next issue of the weekly paper.

Selling advertisements at the beginning of the year is the first job undertaken by the staff. Then each week as soon as one paper is in the printing process, the hunt for news, personalities, and bits of gossip; the rush of typing copy; the plans for photographs; and the meeting of deadlines begins all over again

Under Miss Mabel Hunt as faculty adviser, the work is carried out by a staff consisting of advanced journalism students. In the first semester of this year Margaret Brown and Juanita Brueser headed the staff as editor and assistant editor, respectively. Juanita Brueser was editor with Carolyn Bloomquist acting as assistant in the second semester

Working with the staff, photography students, under the direction of Maynard Leatsler, take all pictures for the paper. The print shop, supervised by Donald Imig, does all the printing.

The R.O.T.C. has maintained its high standards of excellence both in military performance and in community service under its new commander, Captain Gibbs, assisted by 1st Sgt. J. A. Crews and 1st Sgt. Marcel Jones.

Discipline and self-reliance taught throughout the year to all R.O.T.C. cadets were exemplified by Robert Erickson and Richard Glasgow who received the Chicago Tribune gold and silver awards for outstanding merit.

Armistice Day found the corp marching in the annual parade accompanied by Joan Setina, battalion sponsor, and other sponsors Bernadine Branchaw, Ann Collins, Nancy Zelko and Joan Dagon. Lieutenant-Colonel Daniel Christensen, was in command at the annual Military Ball April 28. One hundred Christmas dinner baskets were packed and delivered to local needy families by R.O.T.C. cadets.

All ROTC cadets are given instruction in rifle marksmanship. Those who excel or show interest in it are chosen for the rifle team. They are then given special instruction on the proper firing positions, sighting pictures, and breath control.

Each year the rifle team fires about 12 matches with teams from neighboring military schools, academies, and other ROTC units

This year the boys were coached by the late 1st Sgt. John Crews, and 1st Sgt. M. V. (Dean) Jones, both of the regular army. Although the team ran up good scores at all the matches, their opponents were just a little better.

Orchestra Presents Fine Music

To achieve higher standards in good music was the aim of the forty musicians of the Joliet Township High School Orchestra under the baton of Peter Labella this year.

The Annual Fall Concert was presented on December 1, with concertmaster Dick Swanson as featured violin soloist in the first movement of de Beriot's lyric Concerto No. 7. Miss Flo Daniel, soprano, also appeared as soloist, singing the "Agnus Dei" by Bizet and "I Love Thee" by Grieg, accompanied by Mrs. Alma Makeever, organist. The rhythmic "Entrance of the Sirdar" by Ippolitow-Iwanow and melodic "Andante Cantabile" from Tschaikowsky's Fifth Symphony were highlights of the performance.

For the spring performance, the Orchestra appeared in concert on March 31 highlighting the beautiful descriptive selection, "The Swan" by Saint Saens and student soloist, Natalia Kochan, who played Mozart's Violin Concerto in A Major. In the light classical vein selections from the Carmen Suite and excerpts from South Pacific were featured. On April 4, the Orchestra presented part of their concert program for a double school assembly.

As usual, the Orchestra provided accompaniment for the annual operetta and for the High School and Junior College graduation on June 9. These were last appearances for the twelve graduating seniors who had helped the Orchestra to advance on its ladder of achievement.

For School, Community Activities

Seven outstanding members formed the well-known String Ensemble this year. To advance the appreciation of good music locally was the goal set by the group. They have performed at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Ottawa Street Methodist Church, Catholic Women's League, the Boosters and several school teas. The students who participated were Dick Swanson and Natalia Kochan, violinists; Carol Ghilain and Nell Munson, violists; Joan Ghilian, cellist; Leila Fisher, bassist; and Anita Geuther, pianist. This ensemble was an excellent representative of the Orchestra.

To recruit a greater string section, a Junior String Orchestra was begun in September. This group consisted of students who desired to study a string instrument, and the members have class lessons everyday. Several of these beginners were able to appear in the December concert.

But the Orchestra isn't all work for its members. The group has enjoyed parties and other social activities throughout the year including a hayrack ride, a picnic, a trip to Chicago for a concert, and a potluck supper. To finance some of these activities, the group sponsored taffy apple, candy, and donut sales.

During the latter part of September, Paul Ehrlich was elected president; Joan Ghilain, vice-president; Ferne Emmert, secretary; Fred Collins, treasurer; Dick Swanson, social-chairman; the librarians were Leila Fisher, Anita Geuther, and Betty Whitman.

Traditional Vespers Moves Audience

" 'Tis the holy hour of evening, And the sun is sinking low" . . . As every A Cappella Choir member hears these words, the words of his closing theme song, "Vesper Bells", a wave of nostalgia creeps over him and floods of memories come back reminding him of his choir years. With mixed feelings he remembers the operettas, the Vesper Concerts, the Band-Choir football games, assemblies, Christmas parties, choir rehearsal periods, and, of course, the picnics, the very last reunion of choir members, when they are together as a whole for the last time.

At the annual Armistice Day assembly, one of the most outstanding of the year, Choir offered traditional selections, such as: "Beyond the Blue Horizon," "My Buddy," and "Roses of Picardy."

On December 11, A Cappella and General Choir combined to give a beautiful concert with songs by inspired writers. One of the outstanding parts of the concert was "The Song of Christmas" by Roy Ringwald. With many soloists it pointed out to the audience that Choir has many fine singers. Soloists were: Jane Anderson, Joan Hartley, Glenn Harvey, June Harvey, Jim Jaskowiak, Bud Lichtenauer, Phil Maxwell, Art Myrberg, Dean Ostrem, Phyllis Reynolds, Norma Secor, Roe Walker and Nancy Zelko. Narrators for this arrangement were Norma Reynolds and John Dague, and accompanists were Alma Makeever on the organ and Ursula Thiel, chimes.

Other numbers greatly appreciated by the audience were "There Is a Balm in Gilead" by Dawson with Ann Nelson as soloist and "Beautiful Savior" by F. M. Christiansen with Annette Johnson as soloist. Having another important part was Leora Fatland who sang a soprano solo in "The Christmas Symbol" by F. M. Christiansen. Another of the old favorites was "Carol of the Bells" by Leontovich Withousky and, of course, a very special arrangement of "Jingle Bells" by Charles. This was accompanied by Bob Kelly on the . . . that's right, the bells

In May, after four months of truly hard work, Mr. Lester and the Choir put on "The Prince of Pilsen," a comic operetta in two acts. It takes a great deal of cooperation by faculty as well as students to produce an operetta. All committees worked beautifully, and the faculty participation was splendid. Giving up a great deal of their time, members of the cast practiced regularly after school, and contributed three days of Easter vacation in order to practice

Another important part in Choir was the publication of the "Quill" edited by Connie Cryder and her staff of typists and information gatherers

One of the real highlights of the year is the choir picnic. They are just as picnics should be, with games, pop, and plenty of food. At the picnic a super edition of the "Quill" is put out, highlighting the activities of the year. But the one part of the picnic remembered most by everyone is at dusk, when everyone gathers together to sing the familiar, the lovely songs. There is much heartache felt by those seniors who are leaving Choir behind, never again to sing with the group which they so dearly loved.

Much credit for fine choral work goes to Paul Lester for his great musicianship and directing

"O God Our Help in Ages Past"—Croft

Choir was proud to be represented down state this year by three very lovely girls with just as lovely voices. They were Annette Johnson, Ann Nelson and Jane Anderson. All three were triumphant and Jane won Division I Superior Award in the Girls High Voices section. Ann and Annette received Division II Award for Girls' High and Low Voices respectively.

Madrigals Entertain Many Organizations

Each year tryouts are held among choir members to pick those best fitted for singing in an ensemble group. It is a very tense and exciting day for those people in choir. Many are disappointed, but there are sixteen people who realize that they are going to have added responsibility in that they must give a great deal of extra time to uphold a reputation which has made the group so outstanding.

Happy to be chosen this year were William Adelston, Jane Anderson, Leora Fatland, Joan Hartley, Glenn Harvey, Jim Jaskowiak, Annette Johnson, Robert Kelly, Robert Larson, Art Myrberg, Ann Nelson, Dean Ostrem, Kaye Pierce, Phyllis Reynolds, Ann Stanersen, and Roe Walker.

Among the many groups in J.T. an outstanding one is the Madrigals singers. This year the group spent much time upholding the traditions of other Madrigal groups which have preceded them by participating in the annual Christmas Vespers Concert.

Christmas time is the Madrigals' busiest season because during this time they go to sing and give programs before many social and religious groups. Some places visited this year were a D. A. R. meeting, the Business and Professional Women's Club, Luther League, University Men's Club, nursing homes in the community, and others.

Under the capable directing of Jim Jaskowiak, the Madrigals sang a variety of well chosen numbers including, "Listen, Lordlings, Unto Me", by Means, "Away in a Manger", by Spilman, "We've Been a While a-Wandering", by O. C. Christensen, and "Merry Christmas Time", by Luvaas.

'The Prince of Pilsen' Is Smashing Hit

EDITH, played by Janet Frojd, grins shyly at Tom Wagner, portrayed by Roe Walker, as he takes her in his arms. "Oh! No!" cries Nellie Wagner (Ann Nelson) as the Prince (Art Myr-berg) tries to take a kiss from his leading lady. "Oh, it was glorious," cries Mrs. Crocker (Leora Falland) as Hans Wagner comes before her on knotted knees.

JANET FROJD takes the leading role in "The Prince of Pilsen" as "Edith," the girl from Vassar college. Besides being secretary of A Cappella Choir, Janet sings in the Luther League choir. Although music is a passion with her, she does not plan to make it her career. However, she, of course, loves singing and her lovely soprano voice pleases everyone who hears her.

Fond remembrances of the annual operatta, "The Prince of Pilsen" by Frank Pixley and Gustav Luders were the lighthearted and gay hit tunes "Weepy, Creepy Widow" and "Artie"; the carefree and nostalgic "Student Heidelberg Song"; the romantic "Message of the Violet" and "The Tale of the Seashell," and the spectacular "American Girl" and "Flower Fete" songs.

The fresh charm of these selections were enhanced by the interpretation of the leads. Romantic leads in the story were Janet Frojd as Edith and Roe Walker as Tom Wagner. Another romantic duo was Ann Nelson as Nellie Wagner and Art Myrberg as the "Prince of Pilsen."

Comedy roles were taken by Jim Jaskowiak as Artie, Bud Lichtneauer as "Hans Wagner," and Leora Falland as Mrs. Crocker. Adding suspense and mystery to the plot were Loretta Sarcletti as Sidonie and Glenn Harvey as Francois.

Paul Lester, director of the choir, saw to it that all aspects of the operetta ran smoothly. With the help of Walter Rodby, assistant director; Burdette Johnston, drama; Mrs. Warren Kirby, ballet; Miss E. Nelson, costumes; Peter Labella, orchestra; Almond Fairfield, stage manager; Ivan Baldwin, set; Louis Englehardt, lights; and committees comprised of choir members. "The Prince of Pilsen" was a smashing success.

Chorus Presents Concert at Champaign

"Do-re-me-fa"—The mellow tones of the Sophomore and Freshman Choruses, under the direction of Walter Rodby, are a never-to-be-forgotten sound for the students of JT.

Among the honors bestowed upon the Sophomore Chorus this year was a special invitation from the head of the Music Department at the University of Illinois to present a concert at Champaign. This event, which was the climax of a successful season, took place on May 2. A trio consisting of Mary Ann Belin, Kathleen Olson, and Kay Gottlieb as well as the ensemble were featured at the performance for the University's School of Music.

The ensemble made more than 20 appearances around the town. The members of the group included Essie Lee Bates, Mary Ann Belin, Lucille Blessert, Kay Gottlieb, Nancy Hiatt, Nancy Hieronymus, and Kathleen Olson. First semester it also included Mae Miller, Betty Marti, Nancy Nelson, Virginia Lang, Arlene Schmeisser, Marguerite Simpson, and Helen Warren, with Collette Koletto; but after mid-year promotions, they were replaced by Doritt Brooker, Marilyn Glad, Pat Golden, Dolores Lindner, Sophie Petroplis, Donna Jean Pohl, Roberta Rose, and Lola Stanersen with Nancy Hieronymus as accompanist.

Latin, German, Italian, and English were sung at the two concerts the Chorus presented this year. Assisted by the Orchestra, the Annual Fall Concert was presented December 1. Selections from The Wizard of Oz, "The Prayer" from Hansel and Gretel, and "The Nightingale Song" by Handel were a few of the selections the Chorus presented.

"Femme's Fancy," annual Sophomore Chorus dance, was held March 10 with great success. Another social activity was the spring picnic held in the spring.

Large Freshman Chorus Divides in Two

WALTER A. RODBY

Final performance of the year was the combined Freshman and Sophomore Choruses at the J. T. graduation exercises June 9. At this performance a total of more than 300 girls delighted the audience. It featured music from South Pacific and numbers by Bach, Martin, Chopin and Miklos Rozsa.

Enrollment of the Freshman Chorus was so large the first semester that it was necessary to start another section which met after school. In the second semester there were group meetings during regular 7-8 period and during 15-16 period. Out of 360 freshman girls, 250 were enrolled in the chorus

Social events of the year included a roller skating party March 25 and a spring picnic. Officers of the Freshman Chorus included: Ida Colonna, president; Marlene Holl, vice-president; secretary, (first semester) Shirley Overbey; (second semester) Margaret Turley; treasurer, Lea Rae Clark; librarians, Jeanette Cook and Josephine Zadra, and publicity chairman, Nancy Felman

Officers for the 15-16 chorus were: president, Pat Donahue; vice-president, Pat Seneker; secretary, Lucille Harney; treasurer, Jackie Clarence; and librarians Laura McCloud and Ray Miller.

Improved Service Is Red Cross Goal

New activities, bigger, better, improved services, more efficient systems were the goals of the Junior Red Cross this year.

Under Miss Marie Hooper, sponsor, and officers: Walter Johnson, president; Larry Flink, vice-president; and Barbara Baesel, secretary-treasurer, the organization carried out a successful Gift Box drive. A Gift Box assembly was held in November with Elizabeth Barns, Junior Red Cross consultant for Illinois and Indiana, as speaker. One hundred fifty gift boxes were sent to Europe as a result of the drive.

Participating in the International Art Exchange, art work from school was sent to Europe in order to promote good will and to improve mutual understanding of life and culture. Talent programs, directed by Miss Frances Nelson, brought Sunday afternoon cheer to orphans, convalescents, and aged in the community.

The Junior Red Cross is proud of being the largest organization in JT. The membership is not 50%, not 75%, but 100% of the total enrollment of our school.

Richard Swanson, enrollment chairman, presents Rose Alexander with the J.R.C. Achievement Trophy for the homeroom having the highest average donation in the drive. James Monge, J.R.C. chapter chairman, and Walter Johnson, president, add their congratulations.

BRUCE H. HOUSEKNECHT

The highlight of the 1949-1950 school year was the appearance of the band in Chicago at the Hotel Morrison, on December 12, before 2,000 band directors from the forty-eight states. The band was acclaimed as the "greatest in the land" by such guest conductors as Dr. Frank Simon, formerly soloist for John Philip Sousa, Glenn Bainum, director of Northwestern University bands, and Paul Yoder and Dave Bennett, famous composers and arrangers.

Other outstanding concerts under Bruce H. Houseknecht, played to capacity audiences, were the Winter Concert on February 10, and the Spring Concert on May 19. Peter LaBella, Jr., director of the JT orchestra, was guest conductor for the Winter Concert, and Hal Dellinger, new director of music in the Joliet Junior College, was piano soloist in the Spring Concert.

Out-of-town appearances were made in Bloomington, Illinois, at the national convention of TKE Fraternity; in Quincy, Illinois, in a formal concert preceding the State Contest on April 29. An extensive trip is being planned for the band during the summer months.

The contest band of 85 members captured the gold AA sweepstakes trophy of the contest with 114 points, more than twice as many as received by the nearest competitor, the Woodruff band, of Peoria, with 53 points.

This is the fifth such award in five consecutive years for the band and its director, Bruce H. Houseknecht.

In the solo and ensemble competition, Joliet band members swept the field. Of 11 ensembles entered, 10 received division I-superior ratings and one received a division II rating. Of the 17 soloists entered, 14 captured division I superior honors, while three took division II.

Again the J. T. Bandsmen won the gold sweepstakes trophy at the district solo and ensemble music contest held at Thornton High School, Saturday, March 25.

The band had maximum entries permissible with 21 solos and 12 ensembles. Eleven ensembles won division

I superior award and one ensemble division II good award. Of the soloists entered, 17 received the high award and four the second rating. Total number of points earned by the band was 107. Next in line for AA class competition was Downers Grove with 70 points

The Marching Band appeared at all football and basketball games, appeared in numerous community parades, and again won the beautiful trophy presented by the Riverview Tournament of Music Marching Contest for the best marching band.

Social activities of the band began with the big annual Christmas party given in the band room on December 23 by the Band Mothers. The Band Mothers also put on the annual Father-Son Banquet on March 7.

Members attended the Military Ball on invitation from the ROTC, and the annual formal dinner-dance was held June 10.

Coaches Strive For Better Record

A great many changes have been made the past year in both the physical educational plant and its personnel

Two new coaches were added to the staff. These are Russell Leksell, who was appointed director of physical education, and Ken Parker.

Mr. Leksell came from Rhinelander, Wisconsin, where he had registered great success with the teams he had handled. His record showed that none of the teams he had coached there had finished lower than third place. He took over varsity basketball and tennis and was assistant varsity football coach.

Mr. Parker, who gained fame as a member of the renowned "Whiz Kids" while at Illinois, comes to Joliet after a two year hitch at Forrest, Illinois, high school. He serves JT as frosh-soph basketball coach, and assists in track and frosh-soph football.

Another change saw A. A. Wills placed in charge of all junior college athletic activities.

In addition to the newcomers, the other coaches in the Physical Education Department are Herm Walser, Don Kienlen, George Fahrenholtz, and Neil Lance. This group was bolstered by two recruits from the regular faculty, Perry Goranson and Louis Sakal. Those eight are the men who shape Joliet's destiny in the field of sports.

Players Once More Bring Honor To J. T.

GORDIE GOTTS

Under the heading of outstanding athletes, two boys from Joliet were given recognition, on a state-wide basis, for their accomplishments. They were Gordie Gotts and Frank Blum

For his excellent work at fullback on Herm Walser's varsity gridiron crew, Gordie was given honorable mention at that spot in the all-state selections annually compiled by a Champaign newspaper. Gordie richly deserves the recognition, for in his four years at JT he has proved to be one of the best all-around athletes to come out of this institution. He has done all this in spite of the handicap afforded by the special harness he must wear to avoid dislocating his left shoulder. This shoulder has plagued Gordie throughout his career and has retarded him somewhat

One of his outstanding accomplishments was making the varsity basketball squad although only a freshman. Last year, as a junior, he started the season on the first string, but a bad tumble in the midst of the opening home game put Gordie's shoulder and Gordie himself out for the season. This year he found the special harness too much of a handicap and didn't stay out for basketball

In football where, after all, he shone the most. Gordie in 1948 held down the second-string quarterback post and, as such, did a good part of the passing and kicking for the Steelmen. Then this past year, when Coach Walser was faced with an array of fast, speedy backs, none of which had enough heft to fill the bill as a plunging fullback, Gordie found himself switched to that position while Larry Molck, up with a stellar record as frosh-soph quarterback, took over the signal-calling duties; Gordie proved better than anyone hoped, and was a great asset to the team

FRANK BLUM

Frank Blum, for his feat of almost single-handedly carrying the offensive load of this year's varsity basketball team, was afforded the honor of being named to virtually everybody's first string all-conference squad and to the second string all-state basketball squad. The big 6'3" center-forward richly deserves the tribute

Frank did a brief stint as an end in football when he was a sophomore, but found the hardwood sport a little more interesting and decided to concentrate on it. As a freshman his basketball was not spectacular, but the next year his natural ability began to make itself known. Dropping out of school for what would have been his last semester as a junior, thus allowing himself a full year of eligibility as a senior, he came back in January and promptly came to the fore as an offensive threat

BIG EIGHT CONFERENCE STANDINGS

West Aurora	7	1	0
LaSalle-Peru	5	2	0
Elgin	5	2	0
West Rockford	4	2	1
East Aurora	3	3	1
Joliet	2	4	2
Freeport	1	5	1
East Rockford	0	7	0

The varsity team this year ended its season with a record of four wins, five defeats, and a tie.

The team as a whole was small, light and, greatly inexperienced. Its greatest asset was a trio of lightning fast backs, Jimmy Jefferson, Dave Walton, and Buzz Matesi. In addition, they had Gordie Gotts, honorary captain, an all-round good performer at fullback. Gordie received honorable mention in the 1949 all-state football nominations.

In spite of the apparent wealth of backfield talent, coaches Herm Walser and Russell Leksell were unable, with the material at hand to put together a line really strong enough to take advantage of the backfield force. This condition was helped in no way by the early loss, through injury, of Tom Govoni, the only returning lineman with any kind of experience.

MARMION — The Steelmen showed great promise when they traveled to Marmion and returned with a 33-0 decision under their belts. Highlight of the victory was Walton's 83 yard touchdown jaunt in the final period. Other touchdowns were scored by Jefferson, Gotts, and Takacs. Speicher, Govoni, and Vrakas were defensive standouts.

Steelmen Display Top Speed and Spirit

HARVEY — Opening their home season against Thornton of Harvey, Joliet carried the ball 56 yards in its first series of downs and climaxed the drive when Takacs crossed the goal. Joliet ends, Chuck Martin and Ken DeJarld, played outstanding ball on defense.

ELGIN — Joliet dropped its first game of the year to the Maroons, when a fumble deep in their own territory with but three minutes to go led to the Maroon's winning touchdown in the 18-14 loss. Touchdowns were scored by Molck, and Gotts also added TDs.

BLOOM — One of the most thrilling games of the season took place as Bloom conquered the Blue and Gold in a 18-13 ball game which saw the lead seesaw throughout the game. Scores were registered by Matesi on a 77-yard kick-off return, and DeJarld on a pass from Molck.

WEST AURORA — Joliet's arch rivals administered a resounding 33-13 drubbing. A weak passing defense accounted for the loss as Aurora got most of her TDs via the aerial route.

FREEPORT — With the unexpected loss of seven regulars because of suspensions and injuries, the Walserites were unable to do more than tie the Pretzes, 6 all. Joliet's points were collected on a pass from Molck to DeJarld.

LASALLE-PERU — The Blue and Gold were blitzed off their feet as the Cavaliers rolled up a 33-0 win. Spiritually at lowest ebb, the Steelmen played a listless game and were given the worst defeat ever handed a Walser-coached squad.

WEST ROCKFORD — Coming out of the doldrums with a bang, a 13-6 victory over the West Rabs at Richard Street Field. Walton and Gotts were the sparks which lit the victory torch. Matesi, however, was the real star as he intercepted a Rab pass in the last moments of play and turned it into a game-winning touchdown. Jefferson accounted for the other score.

EAST AURORA — The varsity wound up its season in an inauspicious way, losing to the Tomcats, 19-20, in a tight game which was lost on the basis of two missed extra points. Walton romped 60 yards for touchdowns. Pekar scored on a pass from Gotts.

Mites Win Seven Straight: Then Lose

FROSH SOPH — First Row: R. Griffin, N. Starovitch, Odell Flowers, T. Pappas, J. French, W. Landry, J. Funnert, C. Jones, M. Pacheco, O. Flowers. Second Row: J. Costa, J. Wither, S. Dean, B. Row: Coach Parker, L. Boykin, B. Kler, D. McKay, R. McGowan, J. Benham, B. Dr. W. K. Sheridan, J. Hills, A. Gull, D. Jessup, R. Greenberg, Coach Fahrenholtz, B. Lidding and D. McEadden not shown.

The freshman-sophomore football squad really took up where they left off last year, winning the first seven games. After that they couldn't win and dropped their last three games.

Coaches George Fahrenholtz and Ken Parker had to start from scratch, but still managed to come up with some hard-running backs. The most outstanding among these were Billy Terlep, who ran from the full-back position, and Nick Harris. Bob Takacs did most of the quarterbacking and did an able job. Other promising backfield men were Odell Flowers and Wayne Landry.

On the line, Jim Costa, honorary captain, Jack Benham, Labron Boykin, and Kerry Sheridan looked good along with many others.

MARMION — The Steelmites swarmed all over the Marmion's Cadets, beating them by a 20-0 score. Billy Terlep scored two touchdowns. Corn Harris accounted for the other score. Bob Takacs did a superb job at quarterback.

HARVEY — Mites almost suffered their first loss, but a lucky break brought them out on top in the fading moments of play. The final score was 12-9.

ELGIN — Frosh-soph took their first conference game as they conquered Elgin, 12-0. Landry and Takacs were responsible for Joliet's points.

EAST ROCKFORD — A 22-7 win enabled the Jolietans to rack up their second conference game. Points were made by Corn Harris, Wayne Landry, and Walt Williams.

BLOOM — Corn Harris led his teammates to a win by putting across three touchdowns, all on good-sized runs. Terlep and Takacs also scored.

WEST AURORA — Meeting the strongest opposition yet faced this year, the Steelmites won 13-6. Billy Terlep had a hand in both scores, running for the first and passing to Odell Flowers for the other.

FREEPORT — The Pretzelites were given a 39-12 shellacking by the Steelmites. Joliet's fleet backs had a field day. Terlep accounted for three touchdowns, Corn Harris for two, and Odell Flowers for one. Henry Sheridan nabbed three passes for three extra points.

LASALLE-PERU — The Steelmites met their Waterloo in the form of a 24-13 loss after 16 consecutive games without defeat. Joliet touchdowns were by Harris and Terlep.

WEST ROCKFORD — Unable to get back into their winning ways, the Steelmites were once more turned back, 14-0.

EAST AURORA — Coach Fahrenholtz's boys were defeated by a squad of East Aurora Tomkittens, 12-9. Billy Terlep registered Joliet's only score.

Fighting Frosh End Season Undefeated

The Joliet Township High School freshman team, under the mentorship of Coach Don Kienlen, had the most successful season of all the school's gridiron entrants. The Steelmidgers ended the season with only one blemish on an otherwise spotless record. Their record was seven wins, no losses, and one tie.

The tie came in a thriller which saw Bloom's freshman squad stymie the locals, 6-6, on the local's home grounds, Richards Street Field.

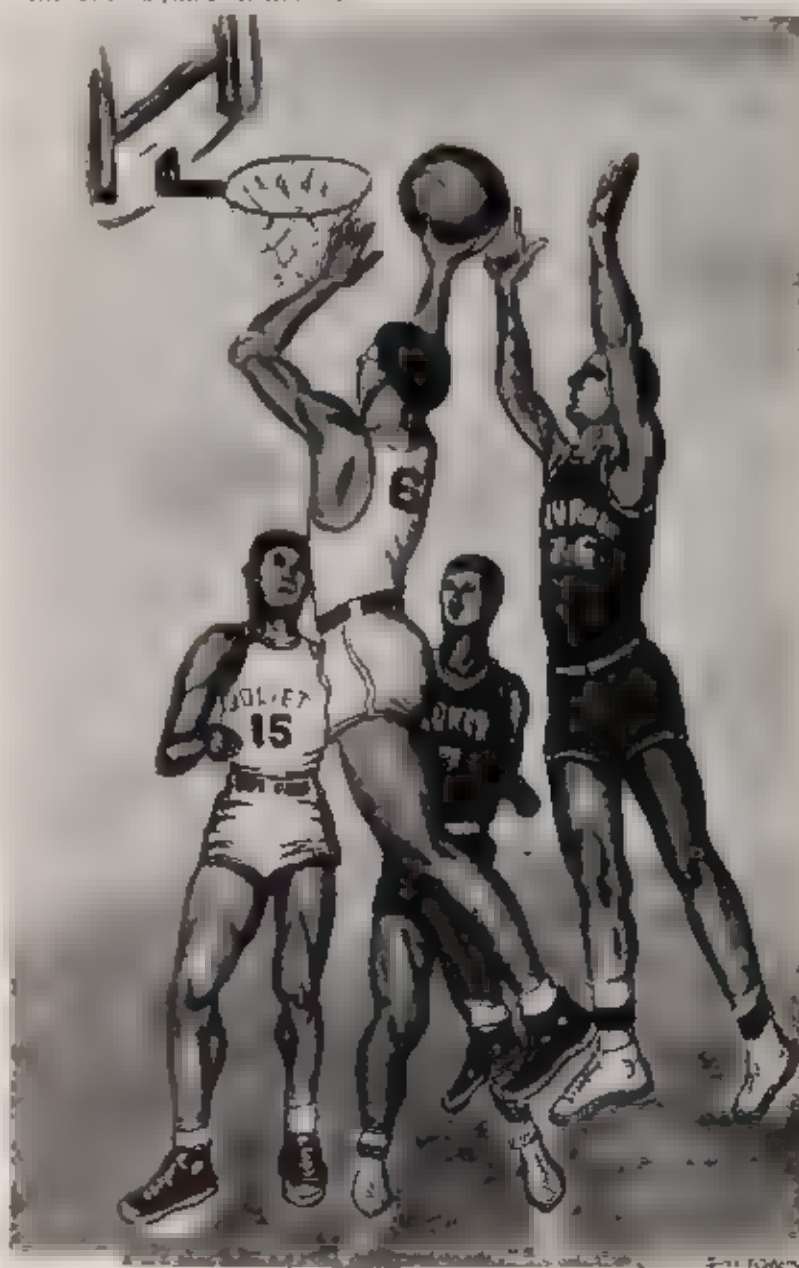

Sparkplugging the frosh to their terrific season were co-captains Billy Pierce and Larry Bertignoli, both linemen; and Charlie Williams and Chester Wrona of the backfield.

Wrona and Williams were the team's double-barrel combination, since they were constantly tearing off long gains and were responsible for a majority of the touchdowns put across by the team during the course of the season.

"Although the freshman team is the least publicized of the school's football aggregations," declares Coach Kienlen, "in a way it is the most valuable of all. Boys come into JT with little or no knowledge at all of football. By coming out for the frosh squad, they not only receive expert coaching in the fundamental mechanics of the game, but get injections of the spirits of school loyalty and sportsmanship. In this way the coach is not only able to provide good physical activity for the boys, but also improve their school spirit and conduct."

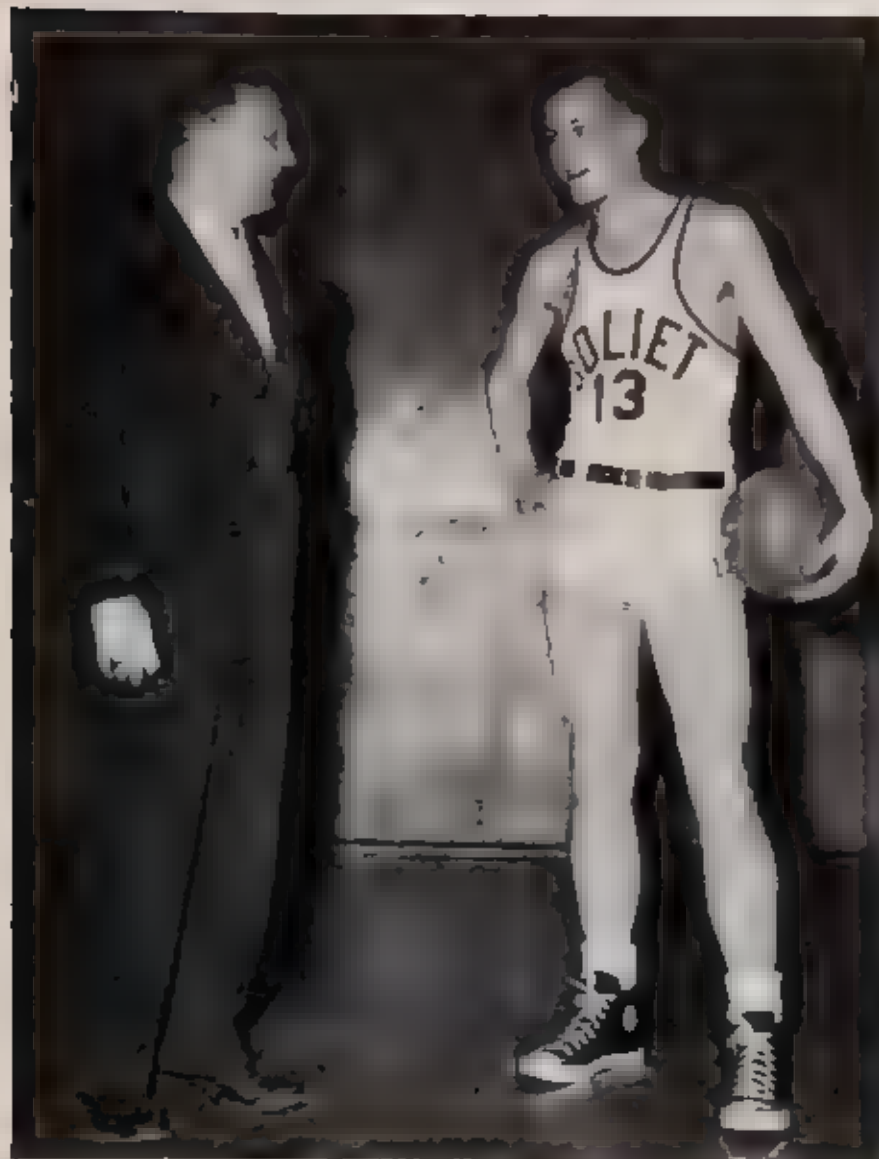

At the end of the season, Coach Kienlen said, that it had been a pleasure to work with the team, which had co-operated in every way.

Challenging Cagers Have Varied Line-up

player for a rebound as Blum, Molck, and Holden cut in. On the right, Curt Holden goes high to out battle three taller opponents for a rebound.

Leksell's Boys Show Fine Team Spirit

When Russell Leksell came out of Wisconsin with a great record of tournament wins to take the helm of the Joliet varsity team, he had his work cut out for him. To start with, he had a squad notable for its lack of varsity experience. In fact, only two players, captain Frank Blum and guard Larry Molck, were hold-overs from last year's first string. For the rest of the squad he had merely a conglomeration of a few of last year's frosh-soph stars and second stringers.

Because of the coach's unfamiliarity with the talent, it was well into the season before experimentation uncovered a quintet which clicked with any regularity.

This five was composed of Blum at center, Ray Pekar and Molck at the guards, and Curt Holden and Leon "Zeke" Seneker at the forwards. The main reserves were Don Harms and, after mid year, Ed Toomey. With this combination the team finished the season with a record of nine wins and thirteen losses and took seventh place in the conference.

Blum's play was by far the highlight of the season as he carried about 42 per cent of the team's offensive load by accounting for an average of 18.5 points per game. His 17.2 average in conference play was tops and earned him the scoring crown.

Another bright spot in the whole picture is that next year the varsity will have four returning first stringers and some likely-looking reserves. If a player can be found to fill the hole made in the pivot slot by Blum's loss, next year will see, at the very least, a better season than the one just past.

JOLIET 36 - CLINTON, IA. 39 — The Steelmen failed to hold as the Iowans took the game, 39-36. Frank Blum and Don Harms led the way with 16 and 15 respectively. JOLIET 36 - MOLINE 55 — Once more turned back, Joliet scored only 14 from the field. Nine of those were recorded by Blum and four by Curt Holden. Blum's 18 led . . . JOLIET 41 - MARMION 30 — Steelers recorded their first victory for Coach Leksell by drubbing the Cadets at the Academy. Blum was once more to the fore with 17 points. JOLIET 43 - LOCKPORT 40 — Joliet evened its season record at the expense of the Porters in a close one. Blum led again with 13 although playing only about half the game. Harms accounted for 10. JOLIET 32 - HARVEY 33 — A heart breaker was lost on the basis of one basket with only five seconds left. Blum's 23 was his best of the young season. . . JOLIET 34 - E. ROCKFORD 44 — The initial conference encounter of the season for the Steelmen saw them fall before the East Rabs.

Steelmen Highlight Effective Defense

Big Blum put in 24 as only one other Jolietan registers a field goal . . . JOLIET 37 - W. AURORA 52 — The Steelmen's old jinx, West Aurora, came to town to serve them their second straight conference loss. Blum put through 21 . . . JOLIET 40 - W. ROCKFORD 52 — Playing a faster game than usual, the Steelers looked impressive but fell short in the final analysis. Blum's 14 led . . . JOLIET 45 - NORMAL 44 — Another thriller saw the Leksellites win on Don Harm's charity toss with 5 seconds left. Blum got 21 and Zeke Seneker and Curt Holden nine each . . . JOLIET 49 - ELGIN 59 — Unsuccessful in trying for their first conference win in four games, the Steelmen fell before the Maroons. Blum and Schuldt of Elgin dueled for conference scoring honors. Blum won, 20 points to 18.

JOLIET 42 - HAMMOND TECH 29 — Hammond's press clippings proved of little value as the Technicians fell before the locals. Blum was high with 21; Holden second with 10 . . . JOLIET 45 - W. AURORA 29 — Joliet registered its first conference win in smothering the Tomcats, 45-29. Blum and Pekar were high men for the evening, Frank getting 16 and Ray 15 . . . JOLIET 52 - LASALLE-PERU 29 — Annexation of their second conference victory was the big news as the Leksellites barely got by the Cavaliers. Blum recorded 16 and Holden 10 . . . JOLIET 52 - LAGRANGE 61 — In futile quest of their fourth straight win, the local hardwood heros went to LaGrange but failed to find it there. Blum's 22 was high; Don Harm's 15 second best . . . JOLIET 58 - HINSDALE 28 — Everything was for charity, but the Steelmen weren't very charitable as they stopped the Devils in the annual Rotary game. Blum got 25 and Pekar 11 . . . JOLIET 29 - W. AURORA 53 — The Blackhawks repeated their earlier performance by rapping the Steelmen. Big news was John Biever giving Blum only six points . . . JOLIET 48 - LOCKPORT 33 — Steelers proved their earlier victory over the Porters no freak by winning the second decisively. Blum once more was high with 18; Pekar, 14 . . . JOLIET 40 - FREEPORT 58 — Superior height and ability spelled defeat for the Leksellites as they dropped another conference game. Blum put through 20, or half the total of the team's effort . . . JOLIET 38 - ELGIN 39 — The locals gave the conference co-champions a good scare and made them work for a one-point victory. Blum and Schuldt staged another duel, Blum strengthening his lead by outscoring the Elgin center, 18-11 . . . JOL-

Coach Ken Parker, another new name in the coaching department, became the third mentor in as many seasons to handle the frosh-soph basketball team. In spite of his efforts, the team ended its season with an eight win and eleven loss record.

Because of injury and other reasons, the starting team this year was variable almost from week to week. However, the lineup which appears to have clicked most successfully is the one that found Williams paired with Ray Gerencer at the guards, Dave Lindemer at center, and John Platt and Jack Benham as forwards. This combination was broken up somewhat when injury forced big Lindemer out of basketball for the season. Thereafter Benham and Martie McKay alternated at the pivot slot. Reserves who frequently saw action were Matt Picciolo, Art Galli, and Bob Takacs.

In the field of scoring, Williams copped the prize. Although he never hit for a great number of points per game, his consistency through out the season made him the team's leading scorer with 165 points. Benham and Lindemer, with 122 and 104 points respectively, also deserve recognition.

J. V., Frosh Teams Give Boys Experience

This season the junior varsity basketball squad once more had a regular coach in the person of Herm Walser. This team is made up of juniors who are out for the varsity but not on the first string.

It enables these boys to gain experience they otherwise might not be able to get.

Although their season's record of four victories and 10 defeats is not very impressive, the figures do not do credit to the members of the team since on several occasions they were pitted against teams which were composed of sometimes as many as three players from the regular starting varsity five of that school.

In the course of the season they beat such teams as Joliet's own frosh-soph, Kankakee, Blue Island, and Harvey. The last three were teams they met twice and on the second occasion, in all cases, they revenged an earlier defeat. Other teams they engaged were Marmion, Bloom, and Hinsdale.

As far as standout players are concerned, it is hard to pin down any definite players since many only played a few games before being promoted to the varsity. However, over the season, good performances were turned in by Dick Smego, Ron Payne, Bob Martin, Jesse Gutierrez, and Don Fritz.

Another of the numerous coaching changes saw Coach Fahrenholtz take over the helm of the freshman basketball team.

Under his leadership the team had as nearly an even split in the win-loss column as they could get, coming out with 8 wins and 7 losses for 15 games.

During the season, the team played against such schools as Thornton of Harvey, Marmion Military Academy, Blue Island, Naperville, Bloom, Kankakee, LaGrange, and Hinsdale.

Indications from this squad point towards the probability that things are on the up-swing in JT's basketball future.

Outstanding players for the team were: Don Ruden, Joe Errek, Bob Kier, Ed Corwin, Don Parkhurst, and Bill Pierce.

IET 50 - E. AURORA 59 — A greatly improved Tomcat squad showed themselves not conquerable and reversed an earlier decision. Blum grabbed 17 points to secure his individual scoring lead . . . JOLIET 55 - MT. PULASKI 72 — Joliet didn't go far in the Paris holiday tourney as they were soundly drubbed by Mt. Pulaski. Blum counted 28, his best of the year . . . JOLIET 35 - LOCKPORT 54 — An inspired Porter squad refused to believe the two earlier decisions and cut Joliet's tournament ambitions short with a resounding upset.

Grapplers Capture Third In Sectional

This year's grappling squad, once more under the helm of Perry Goranson, had a good season with a record of 8 wins and 4 losses. In addition they took third in the state sectional meet with 22 points.

The team's poor showing in the state can be very well accountable to the fact that four of the team's standout wrestlers couldn't compete. One, Ted Faynik, who was state champion two years ago and second last year, graduated at mid year. Tom Govoni, Bill Turner, team captain, and Rufe Sims all were injured and unable to wrestle.

Three men in all went downstate. They were Sam Pribish, Marselo Pacheco, and Jim Costa. In addition to being first in the sectional 145 pound class, Sam took fourth in the state. Marselo and Jim were both second in the sectional at their respective weights, 128 and 165. Sectional third places went to Paul Lopez, Bernie Bisching, and Chuck Noni. Bill Shimshok took a fourth.

Outstanding grapplers included Faynik, who finished at mid year without being defeated; Govoni, also undefeated, but plagued by a bad wrist which permitted him to do little wrestling; Turner, Sims, and Pribish who were defeated only once each; and Lopez and Tony D'Amico who lost only twice. Costa and Pacheco, only sophomores, display promise for next season by their impressive showings.

The team's prospects for next season are unusually good with 14 returning lettermen and only one key senior who graduated. With an even dozen freshmen staying out all season and most of these getting an opportunity to wrestle in meets, it looks like next year will be a golden one on the mat for Joliet.

This year tennis, as well as golf, has a possibility of seeing better days. However, the horizon is not quite so bright here as golf.

Among those who are returning for another season of competition after winning letters last season will be Fred Wicevic, Dick Dragavon, and Dick Swanson. In addition to these men, there are several others who have been announced as candidates for the team. They include Bill Bolton, Bill Lauer, Dick Rodgers, Glenn Harvey, Bill Murphy and Angelo Aggelopoulos.

This year's golf team, if last year may be taken as an indication, will probably, by all odds be one of the most well-rounded Joliet has had in sometime. Having lost only one man from last year's varsity Herm Walser, golf mentor, looks forward to having some experienced men back this spring. Last year's squad was largely freshmen and sophomore, so this spring will find, as contenders for positions on the team, such players as Howie Miller, now a senior; Bill Petrzak, senior; Don Eden, junior; Larry Carr, Bob Pelligrini, and Ernie Falk, sophomores.

The 1949 JT Cindermen were paced by the relay team of Dave Walton, Ike White, Captain Jimmy Jefferson, and Buzz Matesi. In spite of the fact that Dave Walton didn't run in the conference meet, the relay team copped second place. They also captured first place in the district meet.

Coach Don Kienlen, assisted by Guy Haines, still managed to have a fairly successful season, although the squad did not have proper facilities to practice. Other outstanding members of the team were Ben Cervan, hurdler; Bill Ziech, discus thrower; and Jim Rawley, pole vaulter. Ike White was elected varsity captain for 1950.

Returning lettermen for the varsity will be J. Harris, B. Matesi, D. Walton, and I. White. Coming up to the varsity from the fresh-soph will be B. Barry, J. Dillon, D. Erickson, J. Grudar, C. Holden, A. Givens, J. Radriquez, W. Terlep and R. Reichenbach.

Records by Dave Walton in the 440 and John Dillon in the broad jump paced the Fresh-Soph Thinclads to gain a three way tie for first place in the conference with Elgin and W. Aurora.

In the Blackhawk relays the fresh-soph captured four records. Curt Holden captained the thinclads. Outstanding members of the fresh-soph team were J. Gray, D. Walton, C. Holden, J. Gudar, Othell Flowers, A. Givens, and W. Terlep.

Fahrenheit's Nine Has Spring Workout

The Joliet Township High School varsity baseball team, under coach George Fahrenheit, ended the season with a record of nine wins and seven defeats with a percentage of .437.

The team was led by Don Siemsen, Bob Gutierrez, John Valek, and Larry Molck. Outfielder Molck and baseman Siemsen turned into the teams leading sluggers, supplying the power when needed. Molck will be back to spark this year along with Bob Brasher. The varsity team last year received steady pitching from Lon Fick and Frank Conroy.

The freshman sophomore baseball team, under coach Lou Sakal, had a successful season. They won four while losing two. Their record was: Joliet 6—Lockport 9; Joliet 9—Lockport 7; Joliet 6—Blue Island 1; Joliet 9—Morgan Park 7; Joliet 4—Bloom 8; Joliet 9 and Morgan Park 2.

The team had a number of good hitters including Ray Pekar, Ron Furman, Ray Wrona, Elmer Bell, Leo Pensoskey, Clarence Balla, Russell Olivero, and Ron Payne. Coach Sakal developed a team that turned in several outstanding games. Terry Renfer and Bob Saltese gave fine pitching performances, Terry pitching a one-hit game and Bob a no-hit game. All the boys hope to make the goals with this year's varsity.

Coach Lance Increases I-M Activities

As director of the intramural program, Coach Neil Lance probably has a personal contact with more boys than any other teacher on the faculty. This in turn leaves him heir to more headaches than most of them commonly have. The efficiency and ability with which he carried out the program will long be remembered by the students.

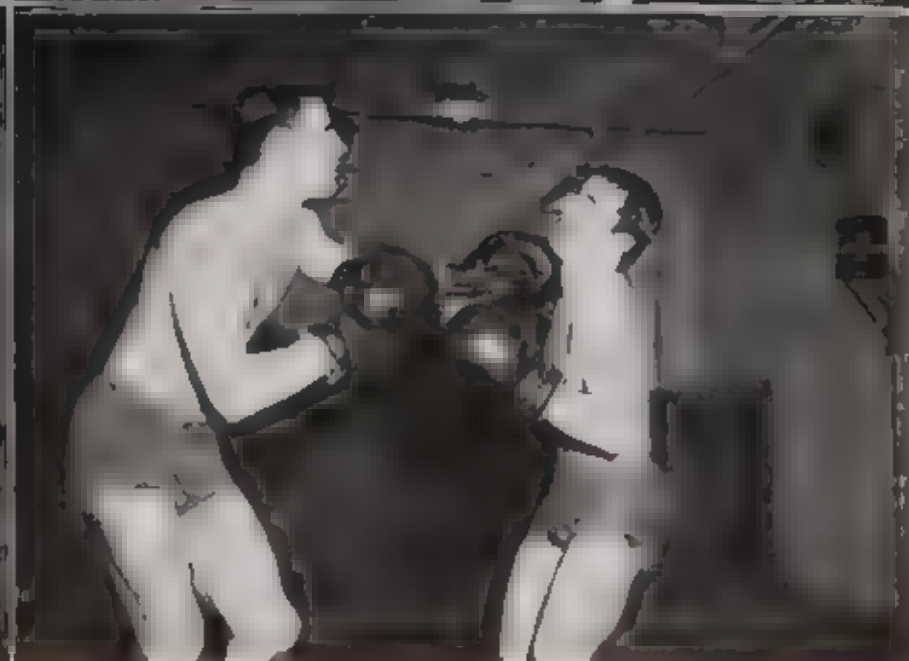

This year's lineup of events started almost before the school year was a week old. A mass meeting of the boys was held in the auditorium. At this time Mr. Lance gave a brief outline of the year's plans as well as a resume of the basic intentions of the program.

Neil Lance, intramural director, good naturedly takes time out from his duties to pose for an informal portrait.

ACTION SHOTS show what intramural participation may lead to. Marcelo Pacheco, top left, competes in a meet for the varsity wrestling squad and on the top right Ted Faynik, one-

After that an election was held at which the boys chose their president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer. Within a short time the commissioners of the various sports were named and the program swung into its stride.

These activities are an important part of the school picture because they help to retain the recommended balance between work and play. Besides that, they often act as springboards to bigger things for boys who have unrecognized talent.

One of the highlights of the year, and one which shows the extent to which the program is accepted by the public, was the boxing tournament held this spring. After a week of preliminary bouts, the field was narrowed down from 52 to 20. Then the finals were held;

the public invited free of charge. Many CYO personalities served in official capacities. The proceeds of the collection taken during the evening were turned over to the Herald-News Free Milk Fund.

Promoting interschool friendship was the integrating idea behind G. A. A. activity this year. The program began with a workshop on October 29 at which 44 schools were entertained. Basketball and modern dance highlighted the day with a fine demonstration by the Illinois State Normal team. The J. T. Modern Dance Club gave a very good presentation.

Another workshop was held here on February 25. Over 400 persons watched or participated in folk, square, modern, and ballroom dancing.

Signally honored, the Modern Dance Club traveled to Navy Pier in Chicago on March 22 to put on a demonstration for the Mid-West Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Convention. This honor, usually conferred on a college group and given only twice before to a high school group, was a direct result of the demonstration at the October workshop.

In Basketball, Dance Demonstrations

TO THE BEAT of the tom-tom and the tune of snapping bones these girls, who attended the Dance

For the first time monthly G.A.A. meetings were held for the members. The purpose of these meetings was to ascertain ideas of all members instead of just a chosen few.

At the annual sport dance, "Dude Ranch Round-Up" dancers were dazzled by Miss Martha Wetzel, completely attired in a cowgirl outfit. The mixer "Free Workshop on February 25, experienced these choreographical techniques.

Throw" followed the last home basketball game with Elgin. Another "Gym Dandy", where all gym activities were shown to an enthusiastic audience, was presented by the P.E. Department. On May 13, ten girls traveled to LaGrange to attend a playday. To end a very eventful year the seniors were honored at a banquet held on May 24.

Martha, Mardella Cantu, Winnie Griffin, Norma Carter and Norma Pohl

Carole Black

HEATS OF ACTIVITIES Expressing her mastery of modern dance is Connie Cryder. A yearbesque to perfection gives Mary Burns her graceful ballet. With a smile of satisfaction we see John Wendell pocketing her activity speedball.

Shall we step on the jaunty actions of Ina Sherred. Lamar McHugh bows on down with a perfect sense of wit. Swish! Two cents for the star of basketball Nancy Carnright. Goldtrap and ride via hand, says accomplished Carol Black.

Carolyn Block '50

watches heads of a fives performance. Anita Gauthier pulls her bow. Zing a bullseye when keeping her eye on the Jordan. Pat Terley plays a good game of badminton. Gary Glad. Lois Segel demonstrates skating skills. With a windup Mitz Miller is ready for action.

GETTING A REAL WORKOUT (upper left) at the October 29 workshop were Wayne Griffin and John Schmitz. They registered over two hundred participants. Basketball and modern dance demonstrations were the highlights of the day. Taking time out from roughing it at the annual dance "DUTY RANG ROUND UP" were Tom Burke, Gary Rhoad, Mitz Miller and Bill Verd. Two Out Toss-up presented by Miss Martha Wetzel (center) by a clear hurdle crossed her path without some excitement. As memories of the last basketball game linger, over 2000 students and faculty attended "BULL THROW" the annual after game dance. "Wow, can they play" were the whispers heard at the October 29 workshop when the ISNU girls basketball team demonstrated the right way to play. Crunch, groan, stomp are the familiar sounds that come from the modern dance club as Miss Gloria Smith beats her tom-tom and urges the girls on.

It was the year 1950 . . .

*Beginning with the traditional daily Morning Promenade on Monday until 3:45 on Friday each day was filled with zest . . .
And so passed the year — crisp autumn, brisk winter, soft spring*

-- the Promenade of the Seasons

GOING CLOCKWISE with the season we see Le Etta Rakoski cheering at the Freeport game. Ina Sherrel, Alburn Steele, Anita Geather and Nancy Meyerhoff are really go-getters when it comes to the senior class election. Freshman Tri-Hi-Y initiation furnished upper classmen with hearty laugh. A scene frequently seen about J. T. a romance blossoms in a tender spot. Full back carries the ball for Juliet. Judy Jager finds that springing the freshman library is interesting. Bob Maxwell is just a freshman looking for a classroom. Could this be 1949?

It was autumn — new classes, new teachers, bewildered freshies frantically trying to make their way through the maze of strange halls. It was the beginning of new romances — the time he met you at your locker to get tomorrow's assignment for the first time. . . . It was election time — parades through the halls, banners, ribbons, posters, balloons, and the suspense filled day before you found out that everyone you wanted had made it. It was initiation time — crazy outfits, giggles, painted faces

And then it was the time of crisp autumn evenings, phenomenal punts, intercepted passes, smashing blocks, sweeping end runs, moments of deepest despair, wild exhilaration. . . . yes, it was the autumn of 1949 at J. T.

WERE YOU EVER ELECTED a king or queen? It's great money earned. Los Angeles and Rocky Lakes of the Student Council of the Royal Rhythmic. The school fire department exhibited new equipment to all students and faculty at the annual fire assembly. Building extension and it is the newest thing in modern fire equipment. Every morning, watching the intelligent dog perform. Cheers are heard from Dick Bakow, Dick Lyman.

Bill A. and Pat Perry, Bob Denton, and Jay Anderson at the Rockford school. David Evans getting his yearbook picture taken. N. C. and Honor Society were in charge of a very interesting historical newspaper about the Hudson Center. A. shown a very good six weeks' grade in bookkeeping from Warren Kelly on Report Card Day.

It was the end of the first grade period-report cards were being distributed for the first time—you were surprised at the first grade, downcast at the next, disgusted at another, afraid to go home last . . . It was the first dance—you found it difficult to get over that marvelous feeling of anticipation for the future good time . . . It was the time for exhibits and assemblies . . . The picture you had taken for the yearbook that you knew was perfectly awful, but your friends said was cute . . . And the fire drill when the getting out into cold air felt so good . . . You were getting into the swing again!

A TOUCHING MOMENT is this observance at the Armistice Day program. In her dress, gives her version of a country girl at the "Cavalcade of Stars" presented by the P. C. A. Hear that it is? Why it is one thing than Peter Perry and his Dixie Land Jazz Band. See there's Count Columbus, Peter Perry, Bob Kelly, Chief Sitting Bull, Jack Lasmadge and Ray Rutte. With its closing theme song, "Vesper Bells" the A Cappella and General Choir closes its Christmas Concert. Silent Night - Holy Night. The soft strains of Christmas carols come from Miss Harriet Brooks English VI class. Mrs. Anna Makover, John Baker, Norma Reynolds and Ursula Thiel assist in the dedication of the organ. Marilyn Cooley puts the finishing touches on the beautiful Christmas tree.

Again it was Armistice day — the roar of guns, the echo of taps, facing east, the shiver which runs up and down one's spine as "My Buddy" sounds through the gym . . . There was the Cavalcade of Stars — your surprise that your physics partner was a marvelous actress, a talented comedian, an undisputed showman . . . It was the holiday season — the air was full of good cheer and brisk sparkle — a Christmas tree in your English room, mistletoe above the choir door, carols echoing through the halls, singing in the classroom, the good will that made packing baskets a joy . . . And at last — Christmas vacation!

GEORGIA BULLDOG steps up school spirit at the Freeport game. Cleaning out his locker for the last time is Jim Gilette, and senior graduate. A lot has put in every student's life is the crowd. Lower's Sh. A. (left) Northern-dazzled students, and faculty alike at a piano concert. Tony Vrakas and Phil May well are experiment 2 with heat expansion in physics. High school track runner is one in for a lot.

It was the turn of the half-century—basketball was all the rage—flash of cheerleaders, the referee's shrill whistle, tip-ins—the gym shaking with "Steelmen, Steelmen!" . . . It was the Kiwanis Show—you found out what stage life was like—hours of "kick a little higher", heavy make-up, that sudden feeling of stage fright, the dark rings under your eyes the next morning .

And there was the everyday routine of classes—the mysterious gadgets in the labs became simple—or almost . . . Cramming for the final . . . It was mid-year graduation for some—the last good-bys to that friendly crammed-full locker, the last morning to pant sleepily into homeroom . . . And the rest of us looked forward to a new semester.

Cadet Capt. R. Erickson, Cadet Sgt. R. Glasgow, Cadet First Sgt. D. Weber and Cadet J. De Acetis. Coach Leksell and the squad pledge to win for 1948. Pete Perry and Dixie Land Jazz band scores a hit at Student Council Assembly. Barbara Baese is shown being added to the senior play by Peg Maxwell and Jeanne Zuck

It was mid winter—almost spring . . . you were down to brass tacks—there were concentration-packed silences in the library and study halls—broken only by an occasional thud of a book, a whispered laugh or a scratching pen . . . it was basketball time—you were leading cheers, warming the bench, mingling with the crowd of tense fans, or making that famous hook shot . . . you were preparing for the big night—trying on costumes, or being a part of that romantic "back stage" life . . . you were sitting with your homeroom in assembly—by turns thoughtful, sympathetic or roaring with amused approval . . . There were class interest—jects, an occasional thrill of pride, and always—homework

It was spring . . . It was operetta time—hours of practice, then gay costumes, footlights, the orchestra tuning up, and the big moment—your heart soared as did the voices . . . It was baseball time—pep talks from the coach, you spotted your best girl among the fans beyond second, the sphere struck wood, spikes ground gravel, the ump cried "safe" . . . It was prom time—and you were floating in moonlight and roses with your ideal as a partner . . . And then finally it was Ivy Day, Senior Ditch Day, Baccalaureate, caps and gowns, misty eyes, long files of solemn graduates receiving a diploma . . . it was the end—and the beginning.

MR. KIRBY'S HOMEROOM surges ahead in yearbook sales to be the first 100% room. Developing skill in clay modeling and painting is the aim of the advanced art classes. Mr. Benjan explains all his energy to his earth science class. Representatives from General Motors entertained students in previews of Progress. Members of the girls' physical class in the parliament are: First John A. Minkover, G. S. Smith, M. Wetzel. Second Row: W. Stupeluk, P. Kirby.
